This document contains relevant extracts from a communication received from Uganda.

"... the Government of Uganda designated the UGANDA EXPORT PROMOTION BOARD, a Statutory body under this Ministry, as the issuing authority for the GSP certificates. We are enclosing the stamp impression of the UGANDA EXPORT PROMOTION BOARD as well as the names and sample signatures of the officers responsible for this."

"... note that the GSP certificate is one of the core shipping documents that have to be submitted to Uganda Customs for endorsement alongside the bills of entry. It will therefore bear the Uganda Customs stamp as well."

"... inform you that the Uganda Export Promotion Council does not issue GSP certificates since it has ceased to exist. It was replaced by the UGANDA EXPORT PROMOTION BOARD as per Parliamentary Statute No.2 of 1996."[1]
